Dear s 47F

Thank you for your prompt response. In the letter it says that "Section 12(2)(d)(ii) states a communication may be authorised on a webpage that can be accessed by a URL that is included, either in whole or as a hyperlink, at the end of the communication. In our view, it is not sufficiently clear that the 'Yes23.com.au' is a URL."

We would appreciate if the Commission could confirm whether, in its view, www.Yes23.com.au would be sufficiently clear to be a URL for the purposes of section 12(2)(d)(ii). We note that the Yes23 webpage does not display 'www' as part of the URL (see below screenshot), however the webpage can still be accessed by entering the url 'www.Yes23.com.au'.

If it would help to discuss please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

s 47F
