AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT SOLICITOR (MELBOURNE)

Your rights in relation to legal costs

Your rights for retainers entered into prior to 1 July 2015, under the Legal Profession Act 2004 (the Act).

If you are not a "sophisticated client" (as defined in section 3.4.12 of the Act) the following avenues are available to you if you are not happy with this bill:

- Requesting an itemised bill.
- Discussing your concerns with us.
- Having our costs assessed.
- Making a complaint to the Legal Services Commissioner.
- Applying to set aside our costs agreement

There may be other avenues available in your State or Territory (such as mediation). Time limits apply to the avenues for resolving costs disputes. For more information about your rights, please read the fact sheet titled Your right to challenge legal costs. You can ask for a copy, or obtain it from the Victorian Legal Services Commissioner (or download it from their website).

Your rights for retainers entered into on and from 1 July 2015, under the Legal Profession Uniform Law (Victoria) (the LPUL).

If you are not a "commercial or government client" (as defined in section 170 of the LPUL) the following avenues are open to you in the event of a costs dispute:

- Request an itemised bill (which request must be made within 30 days after the date on which the costs become payable.)
- Discuss your concerns with us.
- Seek a costs assessment. Such application must be made to the Supreme Court Costs Court within 12 months after:
 - (a) the bill was given or the request for payment was made, or
 - (b) the costs were paid if neither a bill was given nor a request was made.

There are limited circumstances in which the application may be made outside of 12 months.

• Make a complaint to the Legal Services Commissioner. Such a complaint must be made within 60 days after the legal costs are payable or, if an itemised bill is requested, within 30 days after that bill is provided. The Commissioner may waive the time limits if the complaint is made within 4 months of the required period. There is a monetary limitation of less than $100,000 (indexed) for the total bill for legal costs in dispute OR, where the amount is $100,000 or more, the amount of the legal costs in dispute is less than $10,000 (indexed).

Notice of withdrawal of trust money

If money has been paid into our trust account for you, we hereby notify you that we will withdraw money from the trust account and apply it towards payment of our legal costs that are owed, in accordance with the LPUL and the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015.

DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC PLEASE PAY BY EFT AND NOT BY CHEQUE

Your rights in relation to legal costs

Your rights for retainers entered into prior to 1 July 2015, under the Legal Profession Act 2004 (the Act).

If you are not a "sophisticated client" (as defined in section 3.4.12 of the Act) the following avenues are available to you if you are not happy with this bill:

- Requesting an itemised bill.
- Discussing your concerns with us.
- Having our costs assessed.
- Making a complaint to the Legal Services Commissioner.
- Applying to set aside our costs agreement

There may be other avenues available in your State or Territory (such as mediation). Time limits apply to the avenues for resolving costs disputes. For more information about your rights, please read the fact sheet titled Your right to challenge legal costs. You can ask for a copy, or obtain it from the Victorian Legal Services Commissioner (or download it from their website).

Your rights for retainers entered into on and from 1 July 2015, under the Legal Profession Uniform Law (Victoria) (the LPUL).

If you are not a "commercial or government client" (as defined in section 170 of the LPUL) the following avenues are open to you in the event of a costs dispute:

- Request an itemised bill (which request must be made within 30 days after the date on which the costs become payable.)
- Discuss your concerns with us.
- Seek a costs assessment. Such application must be made to the Supreme Court Costs Court within 12 months after:
 - (a) the bill was given or the request for payment was made, or
 - (b) the costs were paid if neither a bill was given nor a request was made.

There are limited circumstances in which the application may be made outside of 12 months.

• Make a complaint to the Legal Services Commissioner. Such a complaint must be made within 60 days after the legal costs are payable or, if an itemised bill is requested, within 30 days after that bill is provided. The Commissioner may waive the time limits if the complaint is made within 4 months of the required period. There is a monetary limitation of less than $100,000 (indexed) for the total bill for legal costs in dispute OR, where the amount is $100,000 or more, the amount of the legal costs in dispute is less than $10,000 (indexed).

Notice of withdrawal of trust money

If money has been paid into our trust account for you, we hereby notify you that we will withdraw money from the trust account and apply it towards payment of our legal costs that are owed, in accordance with the LPUL and the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015.

This invoice has been issued pursuant to the costs agreement made to your firm by me dated 15 March 2023. It is directed to your firm, and is not a direct request for payment from the client(s).

My invoices are due and payable within 30 days of receipt. If an invoice remains outstanding after 90 days, I may return the brief.

Interest is payable on unpaid legal costs from the date of invoice at the rate prescribed under the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015, rule 75, being the Reserve Bank of Australia cash rate target at the date of this invoice plus 2 percentage points. I will waive interest where my invoice is fully paid within 30 days.

Invoices may be paid by direct deposit to the account below:

Account name:	Hannah Ryan
BSB:	s47F
Account number:	s47F

Please email me to confirm the payment.

Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation.

Statement of client's rights

If you wish to dispute the legal costs set out in this invoice, you may be able to do the following under the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) (Uniform Law):

- (a) request an itemised bill if you have been given a lump sum bill (Uniform Law, s 187);
- (b) apply for a costs assessment (within 12 months of this bill being given to you) under s 198 of the Uniform Law;
- (c) make a complaint to the New South Wales Legal Services Commissioner under s 267 of the Uniform Law (which must be made within 60 days after the costs become payable, or 30 days after I comply with a duly made request for an itemised bill) (see Uniform Law, s 272); or
- (d) seek to have the costs agreement declared void under ss 178 or 185 of the Uniform Law.

Dear s47F,

We refer to our emails below and write to seek a small increase to cover fees associated with preparation for and attendance at the 3 day hearing before Justice Rares.

We are currently at 104% of our estimated fees and disbursements, including all trial disbursement invoices.

We seek an increase of $20,000 to cover our additional costs which would bring the total estimate to $254,444.73 (GST free) [REDACTED] ss 42, 47E

Dear s47F

As mentioned recently, due a number of developments in this matter, we are further ahead of estimate than we anticipated being at this stage (previous estimate set out in email below).

ss 42, 47E

Our previous total estimate (inclusive of fees and disbursements) was $174,840.05. As at end of May, including billed and WIP, we have reached 84% of estimate.

The proceeding has been relisted from the original hearing dates (5-7 June 2023) to 10 to 12 July 2023. ss 42, 47E

Dear s47F [REDACTED]

As mentioned recently, due a number of developments in this matter, we are further ahead of estimate than we anticipated being at this stage (previous estimate set out in email below).

ss 42, 47E

Our previous total estimate (inclusive of fees and disbursements) was $174,840.05. As at end of May, including billed and WIP, we have reached 84% of estimate.

The proceeding has been relisted from the original hearing dates (5-7 June 2023) to 10 to 12 July 2023.

Dear [REDACTED] s47F

We refer to the below approval of the estimate of $40,000 in this matter on 1 September 2022.

ss 42, 47E

We have reached 92% of the approved estimate and write to seek a further increase of $35,000 ($25,000 in AGS fees and $10,000 in counsel fees) to cover the next steps in this matter. If approved this will equate to a total estimate of $75,000.
